

Philosophy Scholarship Application

Department of Philosophy

The Department of Philosophy at Washington State University is offering several $1,000 scholarships to outstanding students transferring into the university who demonstrate a serious interest in philosophy and express an intention to pursue the subject as a major. Such students would most often be entering WSU as juniors, but junior standing is not a requirement.

Name: _____ SS#: _____

Submission date: _____ Planned date of enrollment at WSU: _____

Mailing address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

1. Class standing    freshman    sophomore    junior    senior    graduate
2. Are you a certified philosophy major?    Yes    No      5. Do you plan to be a philosophy major?    Yes    No
3. Are you a certified philosophy minor?    Yes    No      6. Do you plan to be a philosophy minor?    Yes    No
4. If not philosophy, what is your certified major?      7. If you are double majoring, what is the other major?
- _____

8. Please include:

- A personal statement of about 500 words explaining your academic interests, accomplishments, and goals, with particular focus on the place of philosophy within those interests. This may, but need not, include a discussion of career options.
- Two (2) letters of recommendation from college instructors who know your work first-hand. At least one of these must be from an instructor in philosophy; the second may be from some other area in the arts and sciences.
- Complete transcript of course work and grades since high school. (Anyone applying during or after just one year of college-level work should include a high school transcript as well.)

Please complete and return to:

Washington State University
Department of Philosophy
Attn: Scholarship Committee
PO Box 645130
Pullman, WA 99164-5130

World Class. Face to Face.